Pursuant to Rule 26(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and 45 C.F.R. § 164.512(e)(1), the Court finds good cause for the issuance of a qualified protective order and ORDERS as follows:

1. For the purposes of this qualified protective order, “protected health information” shall have the same scope and definition as set forth in 45 C.F.R. § 160.103 and 164.501. Protected health information includes, but is not limited to, health information, including demographic information, relating to either (a) the past, present, or future physical or mental condition of an individual, (b) the provision of care to an individual, (c) the payment for care provided to an individual, which identifies the individual or which reasonably could be expected to identify the individual; and (d) all or part of any medical record, including but not limited to any narrative portions thereof.

2. The parties and their attorneys shall be permitted to use or disclose the protected health information of Plaintiffs solely for purposes of prosecuting or defending this action, including any appeals of this case. This includes, but is not necessarily limited to, disclosure to their attorneys, experts, consultants, court personnel, court reporters, copy services, trial consultants, and other entities or persons involved in the litigation process. The information shall be used solely for this case and shall not be disclosed to any person whose involvement is not necessary to this action; specifically, it shall not be disclosed to any District Attorney’s office, DOCCS, other prosecuting agency, or law enforcement agency.

Any person receiving these records shall be bound by this Order, and counsel shall ensure that any such person, with the exception of persons directly employed by counsel or their law firm, executes a copy of the Acknowledgment set forth with this Order, and shall retain a copy for inspection if needed. All persons receiving this information shall be informed of this order.
